Advertising Terms

- All bundled advertising must be utilized during the fall 2024 semester. Any unused portion of the bundle will be forfeited at the conclusion of the semester with no refunds provided.
- The entirety of the hiring package bundle will be due with the first posted ad. Clients without established credit through WKU Student Publications must prepay the bundle before that date. Clients with established credit will be invoiced on the first business day of the following month.
- Date and position preferences are subject to the Herald and Talisman's standard advertising limits, which includes no more than four total sponsored social media posts per platform each day and no more than one presenting sponsor per newsletter.
- All language in hiring ads must comply with laws enforced by the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission to prevent discrimination in hiring.
